GAME 1

Georgia

35

Clemson

38

August 31, 2013 • Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

Clemson, ranked #8 in the nation, became the first non-SEC team in college football history to defeat top-10 SEC opponents in consecutive games with its 38-35 win over #5 Georgia at Memorial Stadium.

Clemson had defeated #7 Louisiana State 25-24 in the Chick-fil-A Bowl to end the 2012 season, thus setting up its shot to make history against Georgia.

But that factoid had little to do with what transpired on the field according to Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

"We have all the respect in the world for the SEC, but it's not about a league, it's about a program, bottom line," said Swinney. "We love being in the ACC and we're very proud of all that stuff, but we're worried about Clemson. And these guys don't feel like they take a back seat to anyone."

A back-and-forth affair throughout, the Tigers opened up a double-digit lead in the fourth quarter on Stanton Seckinger's nine-yard touchdown catch from Tajh Boyd and hung on to defeat the Bulldogs in the first season-opening meeting of top-10 teams in Clemson history.

Seckinger's decisive score was fitting in that his jersey is #81, and it came on the night Danny Ford, the legendary head coach who led Clemson to its only national title in 1981, was inducted into the Ring of Honor. It also came against the team that was arguably the Tigers' fiercest rival during Ford's tenure.

"This was a special night for Clemson," stated Swinney. "I'm happy for Coach Ford to finally be inducted into the Ring of Honor. It was awesome to see all of our former players back tonight. That is Clemson. This was an awesome night."

After the offenses traded three-and-outs to open the game, Clemson marched 76 yards and found the endzone on a four-yard run by Boyd for a 7-0 lead.

Georgia needed 12 seconds to tie the score, however, as Todd Gurley took a pitch on the next snap from scrimmage and raced 75 yards to paydirt.

Not to be outdone, Clemson needed 12 seconds after the ensuing kickoff return to jump back on top, as Boyd found Sammy Watkins on the Tigers' next play from scrimmage, and Watkins outran the Georgia defense for a 77-yard touchdown.

However, Georgia got rushing touchdowns by Keith Marshall and Quayvon Hicks to take a 21-14 lead, and when Clemson's next drive fizzled, the Tigers badly need someone to make a play on defense.

Vic Beasley rose to the occasion.

On third-and-five from the Georgia 19, the junior defensive end came off the end like he was shot out of a cannon and took down Aaron Murray from behind for the first of four Tiger sacks on the night.

"Our defense was needing a spark from somebody, somebody to make a big play, and I believe I was the one to make the big play that sparked us," said Beasley.

On the Bulldogs' next drive, it was defensive end Corey Crawford who came up with the big play for the Clemson defense. After Georgia netted one yard on its first two plays, Crawford broke through the line and stripped Murray of the football. Linebacker Spencer Shuey fell on the fumble at the Bulldog 16, and the Tigers had the momentum-shifter they needed.

Five plays later, Boyd scored on a two-yard touchdown run to tie the score 21-21.

Clemson's defense came up with another big play before halftime, as Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables dialed up a zone blitz and Crawford, who dropped into coverage, picked off Murray for the first interception of his career to keep the score tied at halftime.

"It was a zone blitz and I was just doing what I'm coached to do by Coach (Marion) Hobby and Coach Venables...cutting off the dig (route)," stated Crawford.

After another strong stand by the Tiger defense to open the second half, Clemson promptly regained the lead on a 31-yard touchdown pass on a "wheel" route from Boyd to running back Zac Brooks.

Georgia tied the score at 28-28 when Gurley rumbled in from 12 yards, but Clemson regained the lead on its next possession on a 24-yard field goal by Chandler Catanzaro.

Georgia had a first-and-goal from the five on its ensuing possession and was primed to take back the lead, but Clemson's defense hunkered down and held the Bulldogs out of the endzone on three straight runs.

Georgia lined up to kick a chip-shot field goal that would have tied the score, but the snap was high and the Bulldog holder was forced to fall on the ball, which turned it over on downs and preserved Clemson's 31-28 lead.

"That was huge," said Crawford. "That was another turning point in the game, because it looked like they were going to gain momentum."

The Tigers extended their lead to double-digits, the only double-digit lead of the game, on the ensuing possession, as Seckinger hauled in his second career touchdown, a nine-yard catch on third-and-goal.

The sideline official initially ruled that Seckinger stepped out of bounds at the two, but replay clearly showed he had tight-roped the sideline without stepping out of bounds.

"He is an unbelievable talent," said Boyd of Seckinger. "He's a younger guy, so he has to continue to keep building. I am very confident in him. Obviously, Coach (Chad) Morris is confident in him for him to even be an option in that situation. I don't really know why it was under review. I jogged off the field like it was a touchdown."

Georgia pulled within three points (38-35) on a Murray one-yard touchdown run with 1:19 remaining in the game, but Martavis Bryant recovered the Bulldogs' onside kick to seal the victory.

"That was the biggest catch of the game right there," said Boyd, who led the Tigers to their first win over Georgia since 1990, snapping the Bulldogs' five-game winning streak in the series.

Boyd was one of four Tigers who received ACC Player-of-the-Week honors, Clemson's most in a week since 2006. Boyd (offensive back), Ryan Norton (co-offensive lineman), Watkins (receiver), and Shuey (linebacker) all earned ACC accolades.

GAME 2

S.C. State

Clemson

52

September 7, 2013 • Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

Cole Stoudt took his turn at being Clemson's record-setting quarterback in its 52-13 home win over S.C. State. It was the second meeting between the two schools, as the Tigers defeated the Bulldogs 54-0 in 2008.

Stoudt came on when Tajh Boyd had the wind knocked out of him with the #4 Tigers already up 24-7 in the second quarter and went on to finish 19-20 passing for 143 yards and three touchdowns.

Stoudt's completion percentage of 95.0 percent set a single-game school record, besting the previous mark of 94.1 percent set in 2000 by Woodrow Dantzler, who was on hand for the game, serving as an honorary captain.

"We have been doing those plays all year and by working together, we all get in a rhythm and momentum with everyone," said Stoudt. "When you get in a groove out there, it all comes with you. It was fun."

Boyd was 14-23 passing for 169 yards and ran the ball six times for 10 yards and a score, but he did not throw a touchdown in the game, which ended his school-record streak of consecutive games with a touchdown pass at 17.

The Tigers also got standout efforts from reserves at other skill positions, as running back C.J. Davidson led the team with 63 yards on 13 carries and Germone Hopper, who was named ACC Rookie-of-the-Week, led the team with six receptions for 66 yards and two scores.

"It was a really good day," said Hopper. "I took advantage of my opportunities when Coach (Chad Morris) told me to go in. He told me it would be a big day for me."

Chandler Catanzaro's 38-yard field goal gave the Tigers a 3-0 lead after the game's opening drive, and they went ahead 10-0 later in the quarter on a one-yard dive by Boyd.

On the next play from scrimmage, Martin Jenkins intercepted a Richard Cue pass and weaved through the Bulldogs for a 52-yard touchdown return to give the Tigers a 17-0 lead with 3:33 left in the first quarter.

Spencer Shuey and D.J. Reader hurried Cue's pass to force the errant throw, which led to Jenkins' first career interception and first career touchdown. The play also allowed Clemson to achieve the rare feat of scoring touchdowns on consecutive snaps from scrimmage.

"We were in 'Cover 3,' and I looked back and saw the ball coming," stated Jenkins. "I saw a moment and wanted to capitalize on that moment."

The defense added to Clemson's lead early in the second quarter when Quandon Christian tipped a Cue pass and Darius Robinson came up with an interception. He raced 35 yards into the endzone to make the score 24-0 with 13:48 remaining in the first half.

"Both Darius and Martin have fought through some adversity, so it was good to see them get rewarded," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "The interception by Jenkins was good by itself, but that was a heck of a run after the catch."

The Bulldogs got on the scoreboard on a 63-yard completion from Cue to Tyler McDonald for a touchdown to make the score 24-7 with 11:04 left in the first half.

However, Clemson responded and made it 31-7 on a three-yard passing touchdown from Stoudt to Charone Peake. After Boyd had the wind knocked out of him, the offense did not miss a beat under the direction of Stoudt, who was 6-6 passing for 41 yards and a touchdown on the 15-play, 88-yard march.

"Cole came in and played great," stated Swinney. "We weren't planning on using him as early as we did, and he was awesome."

D.J. Howard scored on a 19-yard touchdown run on Clemson's next possession, finding a seam on a quick pitch off tackle and bursting into the open field to cap a nine-play, 77-yard drive that made the score 38-7, which was the score at halftime.

After the Tigers forced a three-and-out to open the second half, Stoudt led the Tigers down the field and hit Hopper for a 17-yard touchdown that gave Clemson a 45-7 advantage.

The scoring grab was both the first reception and first touchdown of Hopper's career. The key player on the drive was by Davidson, who carried five times for 41 yards on the eight-play, 63-yard drive.

"For him to come out and perform today like he did, it only helps us out at that position down the road," said Morris of Davidson.

Clemson extended its lead to 52-7 on a 26-yard touchdown pass from Stoudt to Hopper with 11:19 remaining in the game.

S.C. State reached the endzone again on a 51-yard touchdown pass from TeDarris Wiley to McDonald. The extra point was no good, but the touchdown made the score 52-13 in favor of the Tigers.

Just as importantly, 83 Tigers played in the game, gaining valuable experience at a number of positions.

"Today was a great day to develop the entire team," added Swinney. "I thought we had good focus, where everyone played well and did their job. I thought the second group was ready. They were able to flex their muscles and show the depth that we have."

GAME 3

Clemson

26

N.C. State

14

September 19, 2013 • Carter-Finley Stadium • Raleigh, NC

Head Coach Dabo Swinney emerged from Clemson's lockerroom, walked to the front of the postgame interview room, and studied a stat sheet for a moment. Then he breathed a big sigh of relief.

"I'm glad to get that one over with," he said with a smile. "We can't load the buses up soon enough."

Tajh Boyd and Martavis Bryant hooked up for a pair of second-half touchdowns, and #3 Clemson overcame a shaky start and pulled away for a 26-14 win against a pesky N.C. State squad at Carter-Finley Stadium in the ACC opener for both teams. It was the Tigers' ninth victory in the last 10 meetings between the two schools.

Placekicker Chandler Catanzaro became Clemson's all-time scoring leader with two field goals and two extra points on the night, while Boyd moved into a tie for second place in ACC history for career passing touchdowns.

The Wolfpack limited Clemson to just two Catanzaro field goals until late in the first half, and N.C. State took its first lead of the game at 7-6 after driving 92 yards in seven plays to reach the endzone in the second quarter.

But Boyd hit tight end Sam Cooper for a diving 11-yard scoring grab just before halftime, as the Tigers pulled away by scoring 20 consecutive points after N.C. State took its only lead.

Clemson was led in receiving by Sammy Watkins, who had 10 catches for 96 yards, but it was Bryant who had the game's biggest grabs and finished with six receptions for 73 yards and two scores.

"Martavis is a great player and is going to be a great player, and it was good to see him go out there and make some unbelievable catches today," stated Boyd. "It showed that we have confidence to go to him in certain situations. He did a great job and went out there and made plays."

The Tigers got on the scoreboard on the game's opening drive with a 49-yard field goal by Catanzaro, and he tacked on three more points with a 45-yarder early in the second quarter.

N.C. State broke through on to the scoreboard and took its first lead of the contest on the ensuing drive, as Shadrach Thornton burst up the middle from 21 yards out and powered across the goal line with 11:03 left in the first half.

Cooper put the Tigers back on top with a diving 11-yard touchdown grab that gave Clemson the lead for good with 2:23 remaining before halftime after Catanzaro's extra point.

Cooper's catch punctuated his return less than five months after ACL surgery, as he tore the ligament in the Spring Game in April and had surgery the first week of May. The junior played in the previous game against S.C. State, but the touchdown, the third of his career and all on the road, was his first catch of the season.

The Tigers forced the game's first turnover with 6:52 left in the third quarter when Vic Beasley stripped Pete Thomas on a third-and-10 play and Spencer Shuey came up with the loose ball at the N.C. State 48. Beasley's three sacks were a big reason he earned ACC Co-Defensive Lineman-of-the-Week honors.

"I definitely believe that got us a lot of momentum," said Shuey. "It was back-and-forth defensive performances on both sides, and Vic was able to get some pressure on the quarterback and get that ball out. That was a big momentum shift for us."

Five plays later, Boyd hit a streaking Bryant in the back of the endzone for a 30-yard touchdown to give the Tigers the first double-digit lead of the game.

"That was something we've been working on in practice all week," admitted Bryant. "Coach Swinney talked to me about really sticking it at the top of my break, and I stuck it at the top of my break and came open."

Catanzaro's extra point made it 20-7 in favor of the Tigers, and it also gave Catanzaro the school's all-time scoring record with 330 career points.

"It's really cool," said Catanzaro. "Everyone did their jobs today on the field-goal unit with good snaps, good holds, and good blocking up front, and they made my job easy. It's just as much their record as it is mine, but I'm very happy right now. It's very cool to say that I have the most points in Clemson history."

Boyd and Bryant hooked up to find the endzone again after N.C. State missed a field goal on its next possession. On a third-down play from the N.C. State 15, Boyd lofted a pass to the sideline, and Bryant went up and took it away from defensive back Niles Clark for the score.

"That was a back-shoulder (throw) that we work on every day in practice," explained Bryant.

The score marked the first career multi-touchdown game of Bryant's career. The Tigers' two-point try failed, but they still led 26-7 with 11:27 left in the game.

N.C. State refused to go away, however, and marched 84 yards in 23 plays, converting four fourth downs along the way, and found the endzone on a four-yard run by Thomas to narrow Clemson's lead to 26-14 with 3:50 remaining in the game.

However, the drive took 7:32 off the clock, then Bryant recovered the ensuing onside kick to allow the Tigers to escape with the win.

"I'm really proud of our guys," added Swinney. "The goal was to be 3-0 right now, and that's where we are. We have nine more to go, and our formula doesn't change."

"I don't think you ever know everything about your team until you go on the road, and especially until you go to a place like this, where there's a passionate fanbase and there's some adversity, and you have to battle through it. I'm really proud of our guys for how they competed for four quarters."

Stephone Anthony, who was named ACC Linebacker-of-the-Week, had a game-high 16 tackles and two tackles for loss to lead the Tiger defense.

Wake Forest

Clemson

56

September 28, 2013 • Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

Chad Morris walked past the throng of reporters huddled around a jovial Tajh Boyd in the tunnel outside Clemson's lockerroom after its 56-7 win over Wake Forest at Memorial Stadium, and the two pointed at each other in sync and nodded their heads in the other's direction.

Only that gesture was exchanged between the offensive coordinator and his senior quarterback, but the message was clear...mission accomplished.

After Morris said it took 59 plays for the Tiger offense to find its rhythm the previous week at N.C. State, he had preached the importance of a fast start against the Demon Deacons.

"That was the biggest thing that I wanted to do," said Morris. "It was a huge focus...to pick up where you left off, to get Tajh in a rhythm, to get this offense in a groove that we saw against Georgia, and get them back going again."

It took Boyd and company exactly three plays from scrimmage to reach the endzone and, for all intents and purposes, three drives to put the game away.

The #3 Tigers quickly quashed any doubts about being upset on their Homecoming by taking a 21-0 lead less than halfway through the first quarter. Clemson scored five more touchdowns after that en route to notching its 12th-consecutive double-digit win over an unranked foe.

Boyd completed 17-24 passes for 311 yards and three touchdowns, and he was also the Tigers' leading rusher with 69 yards on 17 carries and another score, while Sammy Watkins was the leading receiver with six catches for 113 yards and a touchdown, as Clemson rolled up 27 first downs and 573 total yards.

"We're a very confident team, but we have to have fun out there," stated Boyd. "When we go out there and don't have fun and press, we don't look like we need to look, we don't look like we're capable of looking. So the biggest thing for us is going out there and getting in a rhythm and having fun."

Clemson needed just three plays for the fun to begin, as Boyd hit Watkins down the sideline on a pump-and-go for a 64-yard touchdown just 46 seconds into the game.

"We did a great job watching film and practicing during the week, and we knew that their cornerbacks like to bite on certain things," explained Watkins. "He bit on the pump fake and Tajh threw a great pass."

Wake Forest defensive back Merrill Noel was flagged for pass interference on the play, but Watkins broke free from his grasp, hauled in the long pass, and outran A.J. Marshall the final 35 yards to paydirt, as the Tigers took just three plays and 41 seconds to cover 82 yards on the drive.

Clemson went with a more methodical approach on its second drive, but the result was the same. The Tigers marched 63 yards on 10 plays and found the endzone on a 10-yard burst by Zac Brooks, who scored his first career rushing touchdown to give Clemson a 14-0 lead.

The Tigers once again had a three-play touchdown drive on their next possession. Faced with third-and-five at the Clemson 25, Boyd swung a pass out of the backfield to D.J. Howard, who caught the pass, spun up the field, juked a Demon Deacon defender at the corner, and raced 75 yards for a touchdown with 7:32 remaining in the first quarter.

"He had a great run, and that cut made a few guys miss," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "He's one of the fastest guys we have, so when he gets into open space, there aren't a lot of guys who can catch him."

Howard's touchdown was the longest reception by a Tiger running back since C.J. Spiller had an 83-yard touchdown catch against Duke in 2008. On the touchdown, Boyd became Clemson's all-time leader in total offense.

Wake Forest dented the scoreboard with 1:17 left in the first quarter on a 10-yard pass from Tanner Price to Sherman Ragland III.

After three straight three-and-outs on offense, Clemson found its groove again and marched 67 yards in seven plays and found the endzone on a two-yard plunge by Boyd on fourth down.

Boyd used his arm for the Tigers' next touchdown, slinging a bullet to Mike Williams for a 14-yard score. The first-year freshman made a sliding grab in the endzone for his first career touchdown to give Clemson a 35-7 halftime advantage.

After Travis Blanks recovered a fumble in Wake Forest territory early in the third quarter, the Tigers covered 46 yards in 10 plays and found the endzone on a one-yard run by C.J. Davidson. The touchdown was the first of the former walk-on's career.

Another Tiger notched his first career touchdown on Clemson's next drive, as freshman Jordan Leggett hauled in an 18-yard touchdown pass from Cole Stoudt to give the Tigers a 49-7 lead.

Davidson scored his second career touchdown on the Tigers' next possession, as he dove up and over the line from one yard out to cap a 12-play, 56-yard drive and close out the scoring.

Clemson's defense also did its part, holding Wake Forest to only 222 total yards and only allowing the Demon Deacons to convert 2-14 third downs.

"What a great team win," stated Swinney. "We played a complete game for all four quarters. There were no lulls in our play. We played a ton of guys, and they played to our standard of excellence."

"Our team is growing and improving. We played outstanding in all three aspects of the game. I'm really pleased with the growth, and it was a great day for our football team."

Syracuse

October 5, 2013 • Carrier Dome • Syracuse, NY

Just when it looked like Syracuse might make things interesting, Tajh Boyd and Sammy Watkins made absolutely sure there would be no late drama in the Carrier Dome.

Late in the third quarter, Syracuse was driving inside the red zone and looking to trim a 35-7 halftime deficit to 14 points. Instead, the Clemson defense stopped Syracuse on downs. Two plays later, Boyd went over the top to Watkins for a 91-yard passing touchdown that put the game away, as the #3 Tigers rolled to a 49-14 victory in the second all-time meeting against the Orange and the first in the Carrier Dome.

"That's what great players do," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

The play gave Boyd 455 passing yards in the game to set a school record. He completed 20-27 passes with five passing touchdowns, none bigger than the final one to Watkins.

"Tajh threw a wonderful ball," said Watkins. "I had to run as fast as I've ever ran to get it, but it was a great ball."

Watkins finished the game with four catches for a game-high 126 yards, while fellow junior Adam Humphries had three catches for 118 yards and two scores.

Clemson served as the welcoming committee for Syracuse to the ACC on the day, but there was little welcoming about what transpired on the field.

For the second game in a row, Clemson scored on its third play from scrimmage, and it reached the endzone twice more before the end of the first quarter to give it a 21-0 lead in Syracuse's conference debut.

Boyd, who was named ACC Offensive Back-of-the-Week, became just the third player in ACC history to amass 10,000 career total yards, as the Tigers remained unbeaten.

"Boyd is something special," stated Swinney. "Teddy Bridgewater (Louisville) brought his top-10 team in here and couldn't get it done. Geno Smith (West Virginia) brought his top-10 team in here and couldn't get it done. And Tajh Boyd did, and I think that's a credit to him and his focus."

Just as it had done against Wake Forest one week earlier, Clemson needed only three plays from scrimmage to find the endzone. After quick passes to Watkins and Humphries netted 22 yards on the first two plays, Boyd got the Orange secondary to bite on a fake and went over the top to Humphries, who strolled into the endzone for a 60-yard touchdown.

Clemson added to its lead with a 10-play, 92-yard march that culminated in a one-yard plunge by Zac Brooks.

Boyd and Humphries hooked up for another long touchdown on Clemson's next drive, as Boyd faked a throw to Watkins in the flat and instead went deep down the sideline to Humphries, who broke a tackle and scored on a 42-yard touchdown to give the Tigers a 21-0 advantage.

"We talked about it last night...if we could block them early, we felt like there would be some big plays early and it would create good momentum for us," said Swinney.

Syracuse scored its first touchdown on the first play of the second quarter, as Jerome Smith rumbled 66 yards.

After Syracuse forced a punt, it went on the move and looked to make it a one-score game again. Instead, Bashaud Breeland made a leaping interception down the sideline.

Clemson stretched its lead to 28-7 five plays later, as Boyd hit Stanton Seckinger in the endzone for a 17-yard score. The senior quarterback threw a perfectly-timed pass over the shoulder of a Syracuse defender.

"I don't get too excited about many passes, but that one I was," admitted Boyd. "I came back to the sideline, and I was like, 'that was a dime.'"

Boyd threw his fourth touchdown pass of the day on the next drive, as he went over the top to Martavis Bryant for 40-yard score to give the Tigers a 35-7 lead, which was the score at halftime.

Syracuse cut the Clemson lead to 35-14 on a 28-yard touchdown run by Prince-Tyson Gulley, as the Orange opened the second half with a seven-play, 82-yard scoring drive.

Syracuse got the ball back and was poised to make things interesting, but after one first down, Vic Beasley sacked Terrel Hunt on a second-down play and Darius Robinson came up with his second interception of the day on third down. Beasley, who had four tackles for loss and two sacks in the game, was named ACC Defensive Line-man-of-the-Week.

Boyd was intercepted for the second time on the day and the season, then Syracuse marched as far as the Clemson 17.

The Orange went backward from that point, as Beasley recorded a tackle for loss and a sack on consecutive plays, then Ryan Norton missed a 42-yard field goal to keep Clemson ahead by 21 points.

Clemson's defense came up with its biggest stop of the game on the next Syracuse possession. After Syracuse used a 38-yard run on a fake punt to set itself up inside the red zone, the Tigers stopped Syracuse on downs to get the ball back at the Clemson 13. On three drives in the red zone in the game, the Orange came away with no points.

Two plays later, Boyd went over the top to Watkins for a 91-yard touchdown that made the score 42-14 and finally put the game out of reach late in the third quarter.

In the fourth quarter, quarterback Chad Kelly, a native of nearby Niagara Falls, NY, directed Clemson on a 10-play, 67-yard scoring drive, culminating in C.J. Davidson's two-yard touchdown run.

The Tigers, with the help of the offensive line, including ACC Offensive Lineman-of-the-Week Kalon Davis, accumulated 624 yards in the game.

GAME 6

Boston College

14

Clemson

24

October 12, 2013 • Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

The defense kept #3 Clemson in the game for the first half against Boston College. In the second half, it went out and won it.

The Tigers had five sacks, limited the nation's leading rusher, Andre Williams, to 70 yards, and scored the game-clinching touchdown on defense, as they overcame a sputtering first half offensively to defeat the Eagles 24-14 at Memorial Stadium.

"We knew we had to win the game on the defensive side and we locked down and took over," said defensive tackle Grady Jarrett.

Linebacker Tony Steward's sack, the first of his career, and forced fumble of Chase Rettig in the fourth quarter was recovered by Vic Beasley and returned 13 yards for a touchdown that turned a too-close-for-comfort lead into a double-digit advantage for the Tigers and provided the final margin.

"Anytime you can score on defense, tight game or not, it's always huge and it's difficult to do," stated Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables. "It came at a critical time in the game and created a lot of momentum for us. No one deserves it more than Tony with the things he's been through. He seized his opportunity and I'm happy for him. I'm happy for us."

Beasley, who led the nation with eight sacks entering the contest, was named the game's MVP after recording six tackles, two tackles for loss, one sack, and the game-clinching touchdown. He became the first defensive player to win the Leather Helmet Award.

"He's tough to handle on that edge when he knows it's pass time," said Venables of Beasley, who earned ACC Defensive Lineman-of-the-Week honors. "He's playing good right now. All those guys up front are."

The Tigers led the nation in sacks per game (3.8) entering the contest. The defense recorded five sacks for -42 yards against the Eagles.

The defense held its fifth-straight foe to 14 points or fewer, the first time that a Tiger defense did that since a six-game streak from the end of the 1989 season to the first game of the 1990 campaign.

"I think they're pretty special," added Venables. "They've got a chemistry about them. They like to play. There's great trust. We're playing with discipline. We play with incredible effort and passion."

"I didn't name one thing about how many stars they had or all the height and weight and speed. It's all those other things that give you an opportunity."

The Tigers remained unbeaten with the victory, but it certainly did not come without drama, as they trailed both going into halftime and heading into the fourth quarter for the first time since the 2012 Chick-fil-A Bowl.

The offense sputtered in the early going, turning the ball over four times in the first half, twice on fumbles and twice on downs, and even the normally-automatic Chandler Catanzaro missed a chip-shot field goal.

But after allowing a 38-yard rushing touchdown early in the second quarter, the defense kept Clemson in the game. Over the Eagles' final four possessions of the first half, the Tigers forced two three-and-outs and one turnover, only allowed Boston College to execute 14 plays, and held it to 28 total yards.

"We came in with a big chip on our shoulder," said Beasley. "A lot of people doubted us and said we weren't going to be the strength of the team, but I feel like we've become the strength of the team, and I feel like we made that statement today. I want our offense to be great too, but I feel like we're making the statement to be one of the best defenses in the country."

The Clemson defense continued to force quick punts early in the second half, getting a stop after four plays on the opening drive and forcing a three-and-out on the Eagles' next drive, with Stephone Anthony providing an exclamation point with a third-down sack.

Clemson appeared to have finally found the endzone on a 48-yard deep ball from Tajh Boyd to Martavis Bryant, but the play was called back due to a penalty.

However, the Tigers needed just two plays to hit paydirt again, as Boyd went deep down the same sideline, this time to Sammy Watkins for a 48-yard touchdown that gave Clemson its first lead (10-7) of the day with 6:59 left in the third quarter.

"It was the exact same play (as the one to Bryant)," said Watkins. "We just came back in a different formation and ran the same play."

Boston College answered in short order, as it went over the top for a 69-yard touchdown from Rettig to Alex Amidon on the next play from scrimmage to regain the lead 14-10 only 19 seconds after the Tigers had moved in front.

Clemson still trailed heading into the fourth quarter, but the deficit did not last long. The third quarter ended with the Tigers marching to the Boston College 32, and three plays later, Boyd, who earlier in the game broke the school record for career passing yards, burst up the middle for a six-yard touchdown run to give Clemson a 17-14 lead.

After being responsible for keeping Clemson afloat for three quarters, the defense made the play that fully turned the game in its favor on the next possession.

With Boston College facing third-and-eight at its own 27, Steward tracked down Rettig outside the pocket and forced a fumble. Beasley scooped up the loose ball and carried it 13 yards for his first career score to give Clemson a 24-14 lead with 12:42 left in the game.

"I wasn't even in the game and I was sprinting out there to celebrate with my teammates," stated Jarrett. "I was so glad that Tony got that sack. He really deserved it. Vic picked it up and it was a great play. We needed that."

"It's good to know that we can win a street fight," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "You have to give Boston College credit. They were a tough team, but we battled, we played very physically, and we were a little bit deeper than they were. It's good to pull out a win. The play of our defense was tremendous."

Clemson

October 19, 2013 • Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

The turnover battle had been a big part of the formula for success in Clemson's 6-0 start to the season. It was just as key an ingredient in a recipe for disaster against #5 Florida State.

In the first clash of top-five teams in Death Valley history, #3 Clemson turned the ball over three times in the first half, more than it had in a game all season, and never recovered, as it fell to Florida State 51-14. The loss snapped Clemson's 11-game winning streak, all by double-digits, against ACC teams.

"That's something we haven't done," said Offensive Coordinator Chad Morris. "We haven't turned the ball over. In a game of this magnitude, if they would have turned the ball over to us, it would have been just like that with us. You don't take two top teams like that and give anyone anything, and we basically handed them some freebies."

Clemson had won five straight home games in the series with the Seminoles and had turned the ball over just six times in those contests. By contrast, it committed four turnovers and the Seminoles scored 24 points off those miscues. Florida State also scored the most points by an opposing team in Memorial Stadium history.

The turnover woes began for the Tigers on the game's first play from scrimmage, as Stanton Seckinger fumbled after a reception.

Florida State recovered the fumble at the Clemson 34, and three plays later, it found the endzone on a 22-yard pass from Jameis Winston to Kelvin Benjamin for a 7-0 lead just 82 seconds into the game.

After the Seminoles upped their lead to 10-0 with a field goal, Clemson coughed up the football again. Mario Edwards, Jr. picked up Tajh Boyd's fumble and rumbled 37 yards for a touchdown to give Florida State a 17-0 lead with 3:07 left in the first quarter.

"When you spot a team that good 17 points, it's a huge uphill challenge," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "We never could swing the momentum back in our favor, and turnovers were a huge part of that."

Clemson stemmed the tide briefly by putting together an 11-play, 65-yard drive to score its first points of the game on a two-yard slant pass from Boyd to Sammy Watkins, who made a juggling grab in the endzone.

But the Seminoles added a long touchdown from Winston to Rashad Greene in the second quarter and a field goal just before halftime, as they took a 27-7 into the locker room.

Boyd had been intercepted deep in Florida State territory late in the second quarter for a third first-half turnover for the Tigers.

The Seminoles scored on the opening drive of the second half to make it 34-7 on a 17-yard pass from Winston to Greene.

Clemson committed its fourth turnover of the night when Boyd was picked off by Ronald Darby midway through the fourth quarter.

For the game, Boyd finished 17-37 passing for 156 yards and a touchdown against two interceptions.

"I didn't perform the way I was capable," admitted Boyd. "As a leader, it's my job to go out and lead and perform, and I didn't do that tonight. There were some moments that I would like to have back, but you have to keep on working."

Winston scored on a four-yard run a few minutes later to make the score 41-7 with 4:04 left in the third quarter.

Florida State added another touchdown early in the fourth quarter on a two-yard run by Devonta Freeman, and it tacked on a field goal with 4:41 remaining in the fourth quarter.

Cole Stoudt engineered a 16-play, 71-yard march for the Tigers and finished it off himself with a two-yard plunge on fourth down with 13 seconds left in the game to provide the final margin.

Clemson's offense managed just 326 total yards, while Florida State amassed 565 total yards.

"Having those types of mistakes against a great team... you won't win," said Watkins. "Those two turnovers really hurt us, but it's more than just those turnovers. We as an offense never got started, never got clicking, and as an offense, we hurt ourselves. We have a lot of things as an offense to go over and fix."

GAME 8

Maryland

27

October 26, 2013 • Byrd Stadium • College Park, MD

Roderick McDowell stood outside the lockerroom in the crisp night air at Byrd Stadium fielding questions from reporters when fellow running back D.J. Howard walked by, pointed at him, and hollered, "Hey, there goes the star."

Howard was playfully teasing McDowell about the media attention, but he was also speaking the truth.

McDowell carried 30 times for 161 yards and two touchdowns, his first two of the year, as the #9 Tigers defeated Maryland 40-27 behind a ground game that rolled up 236 yards on 57 carries.

"We wanted to establish a hard-nosed running game," said McDowell. "Our mindset is if we can run the ball, it's going to be a long night. So tonight, we wanted to play smash-mouth football."

There was little flashy about Clemson's victory. But then, that was the point.

After Head Coach Dabo Swinney said during the week that the team was going "back to basics," the Tigers relied on a stingy defense and methodical approach on offense, by their standards, to rally from an early deficit and wear down the Terrapins.

Clemson totaled 98 plays on offense, churned out 30 first downs, and held the football for 33:16, as it moved deliberately downfield on drive after drive.

While that was clearly the gameplan, the Tigers' inability to finish their possessions with touchdowns kept the game interesting much longer than they would have liked.

Clemson had seven red-zone possessions, but only scored three touchdowns on those drives, as the other four red-zone trips ended in field goals.

"We probably could have put this game away a lot earlier if we capitalized and did a better job in the red-zone and goal-line packages," admitted Swinney.

Finally, McDowell scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter, the latter a 45-yard jaunt, to seal the win.

"I think Coach (Chad) Morris did a great job with running the ball, then passing, running the ball, then passing," stated Sammy Watkins. "That wore down the defense and kept them wondering and thinking."

With the help of offensive tackle Brandon Thomas, who was named ACC Offensive Lineman-of-the-Week, Tajh Boyd passed for 304 yards and a touchdown, while Watkins set a school record with 14 receptions and finished with 163 receiving yards. McDowell and Watkins became the first duo in Clemson history to total 160 rushing yards and 160 receiving yards in a single game.

"What a game," said Swinney of Watkins, who was named ACC Receiver-of-the-Week. "He was a difference-maker for us tonight."

While the Tigers eventually pulled away, they did themselves no favors by turning the ball over three times, including fumbles on back-to-back offensive plays early in the second quarter.

But after those fumbles, both of which came inside the Tiger 30, the defense held Maryland without a first down, and the Terrapins were only able to trim a 16-7 halftime deficit to 16-13 on field goals.

"We were in bad field position...I think inside our 30 both times," said graduate linebacker Spencer Shuey. "To be able to get three-and-outs and hold them to only six points and not let the momentum swing too far was big for us."

The Tigers had trailed 7-3 after a 71-yard catch-and-run by Levern Jacobs, but Clemson took a 9-7 lead after two Chandler Catanzaro field goals.

Clemson finally reached paydirt late in the first half on a second-down play from the Terrapin five, as Boyd lofted a pass into the corner of the endzone for tight end Jordan Leggett, who had lined up in the backfield. The freshman adjusted well to the ball, turned his body in the air, and made a leaping grab to give the Tigers a 16-7 halftime lead.

After Maryland trimmed the Clemson lead to 16-13, Catanzaro's fourth field goal extended the lead to six points with 6:42 left in the third quarter.

Still clinging to that lead early in the fourth quarter and the Terrapins in possession, Bashaud Breeland forced an Albert Reid fumble, then Shuey picked up the loose ball and returned it nine yards to the Terrapin 22.

Breeland had to sit out the first half of the game, because he was ejected for targeting in the second half of the Florida State. But when he entered the contest, he certainly made an impact.

"He had to sit inside like a criminal or something for the first half," said Swinney. "And then we got him ready to go. He sat out the first series of the second half, but then we got him in there...and he was huge."

Four plays later, Boyd ran in from five yards out to give Clemson a double-digit lead early in the fourth quarter.

Boyd was intercepted in the fourth quarter to set Maryland up at the Clemson 31, but the Tiger defense forced the Terrapins to go backwards 11 yards, and ultimately, turn the ball over on downs.

On the ensuing drive, Clemson marched 58 yards and McDowell powered his way into the endzone to make the score 33-13 with 7:57 remaining in the game. It was McDowell's first touchdown of the season.

Maryland responded with a touchdown, but McDowell broke free on the Tigers' next drive for a 45-yard touchdown run that put the game away.

"We wanted to take some pressure off Tajh to get him to play loose, play comfortable, and get him into a groove," stated Morris. "That was a theme all week. We were going to take just about everything off him as much as we could and let him go play."

The stands were nearly empty except for a sizeable Clemson contingent in the lower corner by the time Swinney and Maryland Head Coach Randy Edsall met at midfield to shake hands after the game.

And so ended one of the great rivalry series in ACC history, as Maryland had previously accepted an offer to join the Big Ten Conference. The schools have been members of the ACC since its inception and have met on the gridiron every year since 1952.

Not that it was any secret, but it became very clear that when Sammy Watkins touched the football, good things were bound to follow for Clemson.

Watkins had 129 receiving yards against Virginia...and that was just his two touchdowns.

The junior wideout hauled in scoring passes of 33 and 96 yards on Clemson's first possessions of both the first and second halves, respectively, as the #8 Tigers rolled to a 59-10 win in their last trip to Scott Stadium for at least a decade.

For the day, Watkins finished with eight receptions for 169 yards and two touchdowns.

"We always want to get the ball to #2," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney of Watkins. "There's no question it's a major emphasis every week for him to touch the football."

Tajh Boyd, returning to his home state of Virginia, completed 24-29 passes for 377 yards and accounted for four touchdowns in the victory.

"It was a tremendous performance by that young man," added Swinney. "He played very disciplined within the system, and hopefully that's something he can continue to do down the stretch."

The Tigers led by a score of 14-7 late in the second quarter when freshman safety Jayron Kearse created two turnovers, an interception and a caused fumble, on back-to-back Cavalier possessions to help Clemson score three touchdowns in the final 4:18 of the first half and pull away.

"Jayron was the real spark for us in the first half," stated Swinney.

Coming off a school-record 14 catches at Maryland the previous week, the Tigers wasted little time getting Watkins involved by going to him on the first play from scrimmage. He finished the opening drive with three catches for 46 yards and capped it off with a 33-yard touchdown reception from Boyd only 87 seconds into the game.

After the teams traded punts, Virginia put together a long march and found the endzone on a six-yard run by quarterback David Watford to tie the score.

Clemson responded in short order, going down the field courtesy of two long catches by Roderick McDowell and Martavis Bryant, and pounding it into the endzone on a two-yard run by C.J. Davidson. The touchdown gave Clemson the lead for good.

The Tiger offense sputtered for much of the second quarter, but the defense, and namely Kearse, came up with big plays to help the Tigers add to their lead.

After Clemson turned the ball over on downs near mid-field, Kearse nabbed his third interception of the season three plays later and returned it 37 yards to the Virginia 33.

The Tigers cashed the turnover in seven plays later, as Boyd, who was named ACC Offensive Back-of-the-Week, connected with McDowell for a 10-yard touchdown pass.

Kearse forced another Cavalier turnover on the ensuing possession, as he stripped Khalek Shepherd after a two-yard run. DeShawn Williams recovered the ball to set the Tigers up at midfield.

"I was just doing my job being in the 'A' gap," said Kearse. "He bounced into my gap and I was there to make a play."

On a third-and-one play moments later, McDowell took a handoff, juke a defender at the line of scrimmage, and raced up the middle for a 25-yard touchdown to give Clemson a 28-7 lead with 89 seconds left in the second quarter.

The Tiger defense forced a quick three-and-out, then Boyd guided an eight-play, 86-yard march and finished it off himself with a one-yard plunge.

The Tigers blew the game open on their first drive after halftime. After the defense forced a punt, Clemson faced a third-and-15 from the shadow of its own endzone. Boyd dropped back and lofted a deep ball down the sideline to Watkins, who hauled in the pass and outran the Cavalier defense for a 96-yard touchdown.

"We all know how explosive he is," said Offensive Coordinator Chad Morris. "Tajh has a great feel to put the ball out there and let him make a play."

The play was the longest pass of Boyd's career and the longest reception of Watkins' career. It was the second-longest play from scrimmage in school history.

"I don't know what the cornerback was doing, but he was a very young guy, and that was our gameplan...to go at him," admitted Watkins, who was named ACC Receiver-of-the-Week for his efforts.

"I still think I have a lot more in me," continued Watkins. "The coaches push me every week, and I'm getting better every week with blocking and being physical and making the catches they expect me to make."

Freshman quarterback Chad Kelly extended the Tiger lead to 49-10 with a 38-yard touchdown run, stiff-arming the last Cavalier defender near the 20 and cruising into the endzone for his first career score.

Ammon Lakip made it 52-10 with a 41-yard field goal, then D.J. Howard tacked on a 10-yard rushing touchdown after Korrin Wiggins' interception deep in Virginia territory.

"We had some good, clean execution tonight in all three phases," said Swinney. "It was probably our most complete game in a while, as far as putting it all together. We'd been really close, but hadn't been able to put it all together. And today we did."

Thanks in large part to the Tiger defense, which limited the Cavaliers to non-positive yards on 44 of their 85 offensive plays (52 percent), Clemson won by 49 points, its largest victory margin in an ACC road game since 1984. Boyd also set the ACC record for career touchdown responsibility in the game.

November 14, 2013 • Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

Clemson figured to give up its fair share of yards to Georgia Tech's vaunted ground game and hoped to weather the storm in one of the ACC's most competitive series.

Instead, the #6 Tigers opened up a sizeable lead before the Yellow Jackets even picked up a first down and rolled to a 55-31 victory at Memorial Stadium. It was the most points scored by one team in the series since 1903.

"Our defensive line owned the night," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "This was a dominating performance in the trenches."

Clemson held the Yellow Jackets to 24 yards on their first four possessions, as it built a 20-point lead by the early stages of the second quarter and pulled away with four second-half touchdowns.

"The first couple of drives were awesome," said senior linebacker Quandon Christian, who finished with a game-high 11 tackles. "Everyone was doing their jobs and they couldn't get anything going."

Since 2008, Georgia Tech has rushed for more yards than any FBS team thanks to Head Coach Paul Johnson's option offense, and it came into the game fifth in the nation at 311.2 yards per game on the ground.

But the Clemson defense put a stamp on the game from the onset. After one quarter, the Yellow Jacket offensive stat line read...three possessions, three punts, three total yards.

"We came out with a chip on our shoulder and executed," stated defensive end Vic Beasley. "That was big... giving momentum to the offense and getting some three-and-outs and getting off the field."

After two early field goals, the Tigers rode that defensive momentum and produced two long touchdowns by Sammy Watkins and Martavis Bryant to open up a 20-0 lead early in the second quarter. Bryant had five receptions for a game-high 176 yards and earned ACC Receiver-of-the-Week honors for his efforts.

Georgia Tech rallied and pulled back within 10 points early in the second half, but Tajh Boyd and the Tiger offense blew the game open again with two third-quarter touchdowns that came just 2:20 apart.

On the night, Boyd became the ACC's career leader in passing touchdowns, while Bryant and Watkins each went over the century mark in receiving yards and combined to haul in three touchdowns.

Twelve of the last 18 games in the series had been decided by five points or less, and Johnson brought a career 4-2 record against Clemson into the game.

"This is a rivalry that has lasted a long time, and it's always a tough game," said Swinney.

This time, the Tigers distanced themselves early.

Clemson settled for long Chandler Catanzaro field goals on a pair of promising early drives to take a 6-0 lead. But after the defense forced its third three-and-out in as many possessions, with Shaq Lawson recording a third-down sack to force a punt, the Tigers took full advantage this time.

After Clemson picked up a fourth-and-one with a Boyd run to the Georgia Tech 41, he went over the top to Watkins, who outjumped a defender near the goal line to give Clemson a 13-0 lead early in the second quarter.

Georgia Tech finally moved the chains on the opening play of the next drive on a 13-yard pass, but the Clemson defense buckled down and forced another punt three downs later to get the ball back for its offense.

Boyd quickly hooked up with Bryant for a 47-yard pass to set the Tigers up at the Georgia Tech four, and on the next play, Boyd threw a fade route in the endzone for Mike Williams, who went over a defender for a touchdown to make the score 20-0 with 9:03 left in the second quarter.

"The offense was in sync, and every time it needed to respond and make a play, guys like Tajh, Martavis, Sammy, and Mike stepped up and made the plays," said Swinney.

Georgia Tech finally put together a drive on its next possession, marching 82 yards in seven plays and finding the endzone on a one-yard run by David Sims.

Boyd took the top off the defense once again two plays later, as he flung a pass deep down the sideline to Bryant, who caught it in full stride for a 76-yard touchdown. On the play, Boyd became the ACC's career leader in touchdown passes with his 96th, which surpassed former N.C. State star Philip Rivers for the league record.

Harrison Butker kicked a 33-yard field goal as time expired in the first half to send the teams to the locker room with the Tigers leading 27-10, then Georgia Tech quickly cut into its deficit further in the second half with a 65-yard touchdown run by Robert Godhigh.

But Clemson answered by putting together a six-play, 71-yard drive and scoring a touchdown of its own on a one-yard plunge by Boyd to extend its lead to 34-17.

After the Tiger defense forced a punt, Boyd and Watkins hooked up for a 44-yard touchdown on the next play from scrimmage to make the score 41-17.

Godhigh added another rushing score to cap a 14-play, 90-yard drive with 2:08 left in the third quarter.

Boyd exited with an injury near the end of the third quarter, but Cole Stoudt picked up where he left off, finishing off a 10-play, 75-yard drive with a 13-yard touchdown run.

"It felt and sounded a lot worse than it really was," stated Boyd. "It was just a 'stinger' and a bruised sternum and collarbone. I'll put some ice on it and I'll be just fine."

The Tigers extended their lead to 55-24 on a two-yard rushing touchdown by Roderick McDowell that put the game well out of reach by that point with 9:47 remaining in the game.

Synjyn Days scored a late rushing touchdown for Georgia Tech to provide the final margin.

"We're playing our best football of the year right now," said Swinney. "Our defense was awesome tonight. This was a great win."

The Citadel

Clemson

52

November 23, 2013 • Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

Tajh Boyd stood atop the Hill, flashed his trademark smile, and waved goodbye to the Death Valley crowd. Then he went out and put on one last show.

The senior quarterback threw five touchdown passes to five different receivers, all before halftime, and #6 Clemson defeated The Citadel 52-6 on Senior Day at Memorial Stadium.

"It was sweet," said Boyd. "I don't think there's a better way to end your home career. I had five touchdowns, but it was more about enjoying the moment with the guys out on the field, some of the linemen, the defense, talking to Sammy (Watkins) and those guys, and the memories that I'll take from that."

Boyd completed 21-28 passes for 288 yards and tied the school record with five touchdown passes, the sixth time he has done that in his career.

Another Tiger playing his last home game, Roderick McDowell, led the Tigers with 108 yards on 21 carries.

"It was a very emotional day for me," stated McDowell. "It was very touching knowing it's my last time running down the Hill, playing with these boys at home, and our fanbase at home. I love it. I'm going to miss it so much."

Boyd's favorite target, Watkins, also became Clemson's all-time leading receiver on the day, surpassing the record of his former teammate, DeAndre Hopkins, who had 3,020 receiving yards in his career from 2010-12.

With the victory, Clemson won at least 10 games for the third year in a row, its longest streak since it had four straight 10-win campaigns from 1987-90.

"I told the seniors to leave Clemson better than when they got here," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "Tajh has made us an elite program again. He embraced his role and enjoyed every second as the quarterback at Clemson University. His vision was to leave his mark on Clemson, and he has done that."

Clemson was forced to punt on the game's opening drive, but Watkins caught an eight-yard pass on the first play from scrimmage that gave him 3,021 career receiving yards receiving, which moved him past Hopkins.

"I didn't even know at first," admitted Watkins. "I knew I needed seven yards, but I realized it after they announced it. It's a great accomplishment to know I'm one of the best who has been here. I cherish those moments."

The Tigers opened the scoring on the next possession, as Boyd hit tight end Stanton Seckinger down the sideline for a 24-yard touchdown to put Clemson up 7-0.

After a punt by The Citadel, the Tigers doubled their lead with a 30-yard touchdown to Mike Williams on a corner route, as Boyd marched the offense 95 yards in eight plays.

Boyd threw his third touchdown pass of the day early in the second quarter, lofting a fade pass to Watkins, who went up and snatched the ball away from a defender for an eight-yard score.

"Tajh did a great job of putting it on my outside shoulder, and I made a play," explained Watkins.

The Clemson defense got involved in the scoring on the ensuing possession, as Garry Peters hit quarterback Ben Dupree on an option play to force a fumble, and Quandon Christian scooped up the ball and returned it 22 yards for a touchdown, his first career score.

"I had my eyes set on the endzone, and Grady (Jarrett) had a great block that got me there," said Christian. "It was an awesome feeling. I didn't want to let the ball go when I got it, so I ran to the sideline with it."

The Tigers stretched their lead to 35-0 when Boyd hooked up with Martavis Bryant on a 19-yard touchdown.

Boyd recorded his fifth touchdown pass of the half thanks to McDowell. Boyd swung a pass out of the backfield inside the 15, and the running back juke a pair of defenders, outran two more, and dove across the goal line for a nine-yard score.

The touchdown made it 42-0 with 1:12 left in the first half, and that was the score at halftime.

The teams traded field goals in the third quarter, with Chandler Catanzaro making a 32-yarder to make the score 45-3. The kick also gave him 395 points in his career, which made him the second-leading scorer in ACC history.

Boyd played the first two drives of the second half for the Tigers, and he began to run back out onto the field for a third.

But Clemson called a timeout and Boyd trotted off to the sideline, where he was met with a big hug from Swinney and a huge ovation from the crowd.

The Tigers added to the lead at the end of the drive with Cole Stoudt under center. Facing fourth-and-goal, Stoudt shoveled the ball to Daniel Rodriguez, who took the pass two yards to paydirt, becoming the seventh different Tiger to score a touchdown in the contest.

It was the first career touchdown for Rodriguez, who carried an American flag down the Hill prior to the game as part of the Military Appreciation Day festivities.

"It's awesome to be a part of this culture and part of this university," said Rodriguez. "Coming from what I've gone through to coming here, it's been a great transition from leaving one military family to a Clemson family."

"It was a special moment getting to see Daniel Rodriguez in the endzone," said Swinney. "God has a way of working it out, and it was great to see our own Purple Heart recipient get a score."

The Tiger defense limited the Bulldogs to only 172 yards, including -4 passing yards. It was the first time in Clemson history an opponent had negative passing yards.

South Carolina

November 30, 2013 • Williams-Brice Stadium • Columbia, SC

Clemson had its chances, but six turnovers proved too much to overcome in #9 South Carolina's 31-17 win at Williams-Brice Stadium.

The #4 Tigers held their own in a number of statistical categories, as they rallied from a 10-point deficit in the first half to tie the score 17-17 late in the third quarter.

But after South Carolina went back up by a touchdown in the fourth quarter, Clemson turned the ball over four times to end its hopes of a rally.

"The story of the game was the turnovers," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

Clemson actually outgained the Gamecocks 352-318 in 21 less plays, but South Carolina did not turn the ball over, while it turned the Tigers' six turnovers into 21 points.

"We just lost the turnover margin," said Tajh Boyd. "If you want to look at the score and ask what's really wrong with it, just look at the turnover margin. That will tell you everything you need to know."

"You can't turn the ball over and beat good teams," stated Swinney. "It was the difference in the game, no question about it."

The Tigers dug themselves an early hole with two first-quarter turnovers that their rivals turned into 14 points.

Clemson marched 46 yards in seven plays and moved the chains three times on its opening drive, but a bit of early trickery went awry when Sammy Watkins' pass was picked off near the goal line by Brison Williams. Boyd threw a lateral out to Watkins, who set himself and threw downfield for Adam Humphries. But Williams was waiting to snatch the ball out of the air.

"We wanted to be aggressive early and didn't have a problem on the playcall, but they were better than us on the play," admitted Swinney.

South Carolina responded with a methodical 17-play, 80-yard drive that culminated in a three-yard touchdown run by Connor Shaw for a 7-0 lead.

Clemson wasted little time going right back down the field, as Boyd hit Watkins for a 57-yard pass on the second play of the ensuing drive, then Boyd plunged in from eight yards out two plays later to tie the score 7-7.

Clemson's defense came up with a quick three-and-out to force a punt, but another miscue gave the ball right back, as Martavis Bryant collided with Humphries, who was attempting a fair catch, and the Gamecocks recovered at the Tiger 39.

"We didn't help ourselves out on offense and we had too many turnovers on special teams," said Watkins. "When that happens against a great team, you're going to lose the game."

South Carolina converted on the mistake five plays later, as Shaw hit Shaq Roland for a nine-yard touchdown that gave the Gamecocks a 14-7 lead six seconds into the second quarter.

After a Tiger punt, the Gamecocks put together another long drive, 65 yards in 13 plays, but the Clemson defense held them to a field goal.

The Tigers pulled back within one score as time expired in the first half, as Chandler Catanzaro made a 38-yard field goal.

In addition to the two first-half turnovers, another reason for Clemson's deficit was its inability to get off the field defensively. South Carolina converted 8-11 third-down attempts in the first half, many of them in third-and-long situations, and that led to the Gamecocks possessing the ball for 19:42 in the first half.

"It's frustrating, especially when you have an idea what they're going to run," said Grady Jarrett. "They killed us with the draw. We didn't execute as a whole unit. That's what's disappointing about it...when you put all the work in, and then on gameday, you can't get it all together."

Clemson's defense opened the second half with two stops in its own territory, and after the second one, the Tiger offense took advantage.

Clemson went with a power ground game, running the ball eight times as part of a 15-play, 88-yard march that ended in a four-yard Roderick McDowell touchdown run to tie the score 17-17 with 3:01 left in the third quarter.

McDowell, who finished with a game-high 111 rushing yards, took a wide handoff and lost ground initially, but stiff-armed a defender at the 11, turned upfield, and hurdled into the endzone.

The Gamecocks came right back with a 75-yard drive and reached the endzone on a two-yard run by Mike Davis to take a 24-17 lead with 11:47 left in the game. Davis, one of the SEC's premier running backs, only had 22 yards on 15 carries, with a long rush of just four yards.

Clemson looked to march for a tying touchdown, getting as far as the South Carolina 30 thanks in large part to a 22-yard run on third down by McDowell. But Boyd scrambled on a second-down play and fumbled the ball.

The Clemson defense forced a punt when it needed to, but Humphries fumbled the ball on the return and South Carolina took over on Clemson's 34.

Three plays later, Pharoh Cooper threw a 26-yard touchdown pass to Brandon Wilds to make the score 31-17 with 3:44 left and seal the victory.

"This is a very painful loss," said Swinney. "I thought our guys fought hard."

"In the first half, we were obviously very disappointed, but it was a one-score game at the half. I thought we played much better in the third quarter and got the momentum back."

"It was 17-17 in the fourth quarter and we had a chance to win the game, but we had some critical mistakes."

GAME 13

Clemson

Ohio State

35

Orange Bowl • January 3, 2014 • Sun Life Stadium • Miami Gardens, FL

Brent Venables bristled a bit earlier in the week when he was asked about the Orange Bowl against #6 Ohio State being billed as a shootout.

While the final score, 40-35 in favor of #11 Clemson, may have indicated that was the case, its defensive coordinator could smile afterward knowing his unit made the plays that were the difference.

The Tigers forced four second-half turnovers, including interceptions on the Buckeyes' last two possessions, to rally from a halftime deficit for a BCS bowl win and a second-straight 11-win season, both firsts in school history.

"It means we're one step closer to our goal, which is to be the best in the country," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "Ohio State...what a great football team. You don't luck up and get to BCS games. You earn your way there. And you don't luck up and win them. You have to earn it on the field."

Stephone Anthony's interception with 1:18 left sealed the win after Clemson had turned the ball over on the previous possession to give Ohio State an opening. That came after a Spencer Shuey recovered fumble on the previous Buckeyes' drive that put the Tigers in the driver's seat.

"That was fun to watch," said Venables. "Just as you draw it up, those guys go out and execute it. To see those guys do that on back-to-back series, it was special."

It was not all defense for Clemson, as Sammy Watkins set Tiger and Orange Bowl records with 16 receptions and 227 receiving yards to garner MVP honors, and Tajh Boyd accounted for 505 yards of total offense and six touchdowns.

"The biggest thing going into this game was that we were going to win or lose the game through #10 (Watkins) or #2 (Boyd)," stated Swinney. "That was the plan."

Watkins, who had eight catches for 130 yards in the first half, passed Aaron Kelly to become the school's all-time leader in receptions with his first grab of the second half, which gave him 233 for his career.

"The offensive line and the coaches put me in the best situation to make plays," said Watkins. "I have been blessed with great coaches and a great quarterback the past three years. It's an honor to break all those records, but it's great to do it with the team and have success with the team."

For Boyd, he moved into a tie with Rodney Williams (1985-88) for most wins in school history by a starting quarterback with 32 and also set the record for most wins over top-25 ranked teams with eight, including five victories over top-10 foes.

"This is a very special night," stated Boyd. "Just the significance of the game, not for me, not for this team, but for the university, for the fans that support us day-in and day-out, has been unbelievable. It's a very special evening. I couldn't pick a better way to go out as a senior."

The first half had the feeling of missed opportunities for Clemson. In the second half, the Tigers made sure they did not miss another.

Despite outgaining Ohio State by 108 yards and largely dominating the game on both sides of the ball, the Tigers trailed at halftime 22-20.

That was thanks in part to an array of miscues that included an interception near the goal line, a turnover on downs that led to a touchdown, a Buckeye drive that was extended twice after Clemson forced fourth down, a safety for intentional grounding in the endzone, and a missed extra point.

But the Tigers cashed in on two third-quarter turnovers by the Buckeyes, as Watkins and Martavis Bryant made acrobatic catches in the endzone to put Clemson on top entering the fourth quarter.

Stanton Seckinger put Clemson ahead for good with a five-yard catch from Boyd with 6:16 left in the game, and Shuey and Anthony's takeaways finished Ohio State off.

"We had enough mistakes to probably lose it, but our guys showed a lot of heart and they got it done," said Swinney. "So it's another tombstone going back to Clemson, and we're excited about that."

Things looked bleak for the Tigers after Ohio State stretched its lead to 29-20 and got another stop on third down to open the second half.

Clemson finally got the break it had been so desperately seeking after its offense had been forced to punt on the next drive, as Corey Brown muffed a punt and Robert Smith was there to recover the loose ball at the Ohio State 33.

"The spark was the punt return fumble," explained Swinney. "We were down. We were -1 in the turnover margin, and that was a huge thing. When we win the turnover margin, we win. That's just the way it is for us."

The Tigers cashed in three plays later, as Watkins went up and made an acrobatic catch in the endzone for a 30-yard touchdown that narrowed Ohio State's lead to 29-27. Watkins tied Clemson's career record for touchdown catches with his 27th on the play.

The Tiger defense kept the momentum going on the ensuing drive. On third-and-eight, pressure flushed Braxton Miller out of the pocket and his pass to the sideline was intercepted by Jayron Kearsse to give Clemson the ball at the Ohio State 38.

Four plays later, Boyd and Bryant hooked up on a fade route again, as Bryant hauled in a juggling catch in the corner of the endzone to put the Tigers back on top 34-29 with 32 seconds left in the third quarter.

The Buckeyes regained the lead on a 14-yard pass from Miller to Carlos Hyde to make the score 35-34 with 11:35 left in the game.

The Tigers went back in front on a five-yard grab by Seckinger, who Boyd found wide open for the touchdown. The score put Clemson on top 40-35 with 6:16 remaining.

With the Buckeyes facing third-and-13 on the ensuing drive, Breeland crashed in on a corner blitz and hit Miller, the ball popped loose, and Shuey snatched it out of the air at the Ohio State 47.

The Tigers gave the ball right back, as Ohio State came up with an interception three plays later, but Anthony picked Miller off two plays later to get the ball back for Clemson and seal the win.
